

The members of this Society are very particular and feel that receiving a fax notice regarding educational meetings is a membership benefit. It is a timely and expeditious use of resources.

To require a signature for something which they have already demanded as part of the membership benefit is further interference in the everyday management of business.